

Enables director to see which individuals are the weakest in the company. One click gives an overview of managers and/or employees who impacted the business negatively over any chosen month or period, as:

- their job was not executed in accordance with expected results
- negatively influenced the work and motivation of other colleagues

Results enable prompt and appropriate actions; planning discussions, training, re-allocations or release of non-performing employees.